

February 4th. Afterfeast of the Meeting of the Lord

On a Sunday, last 4 verses on the Beatitudes, Tone 3:

(4) Your vir - tue cov - ered the heav - ens, O Christ, for com - ing forth from the Ark of your sanc - ti - fi - ca - tion, from your un - de - filed Moth - - - er, you ap - peared in the tem - ple of your glo - - - ry as an in - fant in her arms, and all things are filled with your praise.

(3) The Moth - er of God cried out: "O Sym - e - on, in - i - ti - ate of in - ef - fa - ble mys - ter - ies, take in your arms with joy the One of whom you were told by the Ho - ly Spir - it of old, Christ the Word, be - come an in - fant, and cry to him: 'All things are filled with your praise.' "

(Glory)

(2) O Sym - e - on, with joy re - ceive Christ, an in - - fant in age, the one for whom you hoped, the con - so - la - tion of the Is - ra - el of God, the Mak - er and Mas - ter of the Law, as he ful - fils the or - der of the Law, and cry to him: "All things are filled with your praise."

(Both now)

(1) As Sym - e - on watched the Word with - out be - gin - - ning, the cause of the ex - ist - ence of all things, in the flesh as an in - - - - - fant, car - ried by the Vir - gin as on the throne of the Cher - u - bim, in a - maze - ment he cried out to him: "All things are filled with your praise."
