(8) Through food the en - e - my led Ad - am out of Par - a - dise; and through the Cross Christ led the thief back in - to it, cry - ing: Re - mem - ber me when you come in your king - dom.

(7) I ven - er - ate your suf - fer - ings and glo - ri - fy your Res - ur - rec - - tion.

With Ad - am and the thief I raise a shin - ing cry to you: Re - mem - ber me,

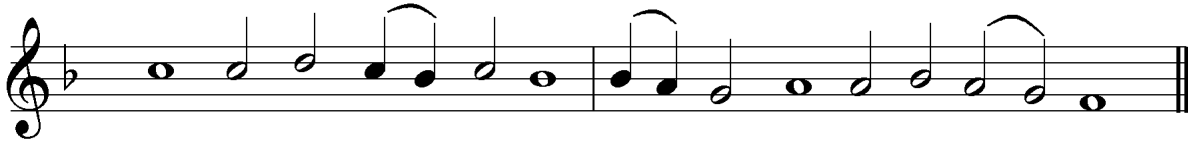

O Lord, when you come in your king - dom.

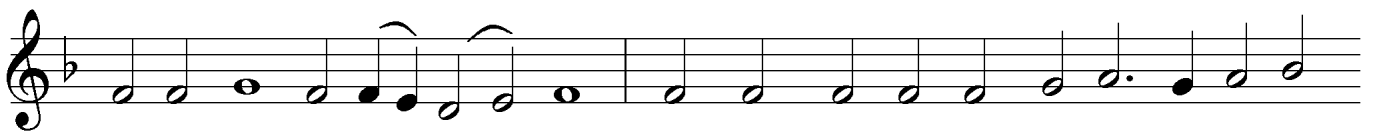

(6) With - out sin you were cru - ci - fied and of your own will you were laid in the tomb. But as God you have ris - - en, rais - ing Ad - am with your - self, cry - ing: Re - mem - ber me, when you come in your king - dom.

(5) On the third day, O Christ God, you raised from the tomb the tem - ple of your bod - - y, rais - ing with you Ad - - am and those de - - scend - ed from him, cry - ing: Re - mem - ber me, when you come in your king - dom.

(4) The women bearing myrrh came ear - ly in the morn - ing la - ment - ing to your tomb, O Christ God, and they found there an an - - gel in shin - ing white sit - - ting, cry - ing: What are you seek - - ing? Christ is ris - en, weep no more.

(3) Lord, your a - pos - tles, as you or - dered them, were be - side you on the moun - tain, and see - ing you, O Sav - - iour, they wor - - - - - shipped.

and you sent them out to teach and bap - tize the na - - tions.

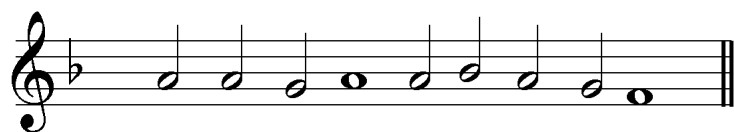

(Glory)

(2) Let us wor - ship the Fa - _ ther, and glo - ri - fy the Son, and let us all sing, too, the prais - es of the all - ho - ly Spir - it, cry - ing and say - - - ing:

All - ho - ly Trin - i - ty, save us all.

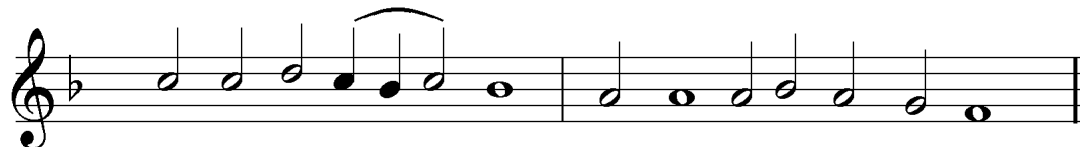

(Both now)

(1) Your peo - ple, O Christ, of - fer you as an in - ter - ces - sor your Moth - er.

At her sup - pli - ca - tions, O Good One, give us your mer - cies, that we may glo - ri - fy you, who rose to us from the tomb.
